Our Purpose

- To promote public health nursing and discuss the uniqueness and broad scope of practice.
- To facilitate discussions related to Healthcare Reform and the RWJF/IOM Future of Nursing initiative and implications for CT's public health nursing practice.
- To promote networking and resource sharing among nurses working in public health across programs, agencies and generations.
- To provide opportunities to discuss and showcase nursing students' activities and projects specific to community/public health nursing

What is the VOPHN?

The Connecticut Department of Public Health (DPH) Virtual Office of Public Health Nurses' (VOPHN) formed under the leadership of retired Deputy Commissioner Norma Gyle, RN, PhD, to provide state support and leadership to foster collaborations between local health agencies, community partners, academia, professional organizations, and DPH. Although virtual, a core team of nurses from across the agency work together to support this effort and the Local Health Administration Branch coordinates activities. The VOPHN's vision is to promote the health of populations in Connecticut by supporting excellence in public health nursing practice.

Target Audience

The target audience for this workshop is nurses working in public health roles, nurse educators, students interested in public health practice, and other nursing leaders in Connecticut.

Meeting Overview

- Reflections from some of Connecticut's distinguished nursing leaders: Commissioner Linda Schwartz, RN, MSN, DrPH, FAAN, Ruth Knollmueller, RN, PhD, Judy Sartucci, RN, MSN, and Barbara Guthrie, PhD, RN, FAAN
- Innovative health promotion activities from local health nurses
- Public Health Nursing practice considerations and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Future of Nursing: Campaign for Action by Diane Mason, PhD, RN, FAAN, Carol Bergeron, RN, PhD, and Marcia Proto, MEd. CAS
